Now 23, Steve is poring over old photos, letters and journal entries he recovered from Katie's apartment in Greeley. In the process, he has become one of the go-to people for services for adult children of the deceased who have questions about the deceased loved one. It's the same for Katie's twin sister, Jen Fuson. When Jen learned that Katie was long dead, she moved on. "I was as blasé about the whole thing as I could be," she said. "I was there for Steve, and I guess he kind of took over." In fact, Wade was so helpful with Katie's emotional welfare that Jen went as far as to admit that her understanding of Katie's death has changed. "Oh my God, it's changed so much," Jen said. "The first thing I ever did was I put on her wedding dress." Now, Jen is paying a visit to Katie's former apartment to mosey around in the space she called home. It's a part of a project she's co-authoring with her mother and her aunt, Kerri Landon, Katie's mother. The picture book, "Katie -- Teaming With Tatum," features the family's favorite photos and writings of Katie. Landon said it's been "an amazing thing to share with Katie's family and friends." --Q: Why does a header's Last-Modified

What's New In?

When you do more than we ask you to do, we do not trust you to do what you should. Do more than we ask you to do. We do not trust you to do what you should. What is trust anyway? It is the willingness to let someone else be responsible for his or her own decisions, and to accept the consequences. It is an act of kindness. The more you do for other people, the more they will like you. The more they like you, the more you will be appreciated. The more people appreciate you, the more help you will receive. When you do more than we ask you to do, we do not trust you to do what you should. For details, See By using this website, you agree to our use of cookies as set out in our Online Privacy Policy. Over the years, Jack and I have become frustrated with the fact that so many people merely go through the motions of life without applying the values and the principles they have learned in Sunday school or Bible study to their daily lives. But they never really mean it. Jack and I have decided that it is time for us to put our trust in a higher power than ourselves. We do not trust ourselves to make right decisions in the way we live our lives. We do not trust ourselves to know the truth of God's Word. We do not trust ourselves to live in such a way that we are like Jesus and follow the example of His life. We do not trust ourselves to be kind to others or to love God or others as He would have us to love them. We do not trust ourselves to make correct decisions. We do not trust ourselves to give to others as He would have us to give to them. We do not trust ourselves to be with God in prayer and to rest in His protection and care. We do not trust ourselves to be strong and patient and to remain faithful in the midst of the hardships that come in life. The time is now to put your trust in God. The time is now to seek the Lord and to hold fast to him. The time is now to seek the Lord and to hold fast to him. Trust Comes From the Heart | Christian Living Lesson 8 19.05.2015 When you do more than we ask you to do, we do not trust you to do what you should. Do more than we ask you to do.
